

In May of this year, Professor Peter Flint, Canada Research Chair of the Dead Sea Scrolls had the honour of being chosen to represent Canada at the opening of the Museum of Sacred and Biblical Writings in Irvine, California.

"Writings From The Ancient World" was the title for the museum's inaugural event which was held Saturday, May 3, 2008. Scholars presented lectures on the Dead Seas Scrolls, Biblical texts, and other sacred writings from the Hebrew, Greek, Persian, Roman and Mesopotamian periods."

Present at the grand opening, was Dr. George Giacumakis, Board of Governors member of Trinity Western University.
